From Barbara . . .

Today's Gospel is one of my 2 favorite gospel stories (the other being the Transfiguration.) The Emmaus Gospel is the story of a journey that is so prevalent in the gospels. It can be applied to our faith lives. All of us are on a journey. At any point on our faith journey we can probably place our selves in this story. When we are confused we would identify with the two disciples at the beginning of the journey, unsure of what is happening and how it's going to end up. When we recognize God's presence in our lives we are rejoicing that we've been blessed and run to share our good news. When we are in need of comfort, we may listen to those (sometimes strangers) who give us insight into the situation. Take time this week to reflect on this gospel and see how it reflects your faith journey. Determine where you may be on your faith journey today, then reflect again in a month and see if it has changed.

The St. Anthony's flea markets have started up again on the first and third Sundays of the month. If you wish to have a space or purchase something at the flea market come on by and join in. Call Leo Krietz for more information at 240-529-2737. Space fees support St. Anthony's.

Happy Mother's Day to all Moms. Many of us have mothered children even if we haven't given birth to them. So thank someone today who has been nurturing and supporting of you.

May God continue to bless us all. Alleluia! Alleluia!

The 3rd Annual Volunteer Appreciation

Are you involved in any of our parishes' ministries? Do you take the Eucharist to the homebound? Do you help with any of the liturgical ministries? Are you a catechist with our Religious Education program? If you answered "yes" to any of the above questions then this party is for you and your family.

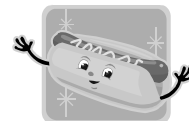

When: Sat. June 4, 2011 5:00 pm

(Immediately following the 4 pm Mass)

Where: St. Anthony Pavilion/Yard

There will be hot dogs, hamburgers, chips, pretzels, beverages and family friendly entertainment. The parish staff will be doing all the work so that you, our hard working volunteers, can enjoy the event without having to set-up, clean-up, or otherwise work for it. If you can, please bring a side dish or dessert that begins with the first letter of your last name (be creative).

We look forward to celebrating our wonderful parishioners without whom we would not be able to support all the marvelous things we do as Church. Hope you plan on joining us.

Church Teaching on 2010 Federal Health Care Act

"Church Teaching on Quality, Accessible and Affordable Health Care and the 2010 Federal Health Care Act" is the topic for discussion at the next Catholic Social Teaching series sponsored by Frederick parishes. It is being held on Thursday, May 19, 7 pm at Holy Family Catholic Community (7321 Burkittsville Rd. [Rt. 17], Middletown MD). Dr. Gregory Rausch, M.D., a practicing physician and a deacon of the Church, will discuss what the Church teaches about health care, how the "Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act" passed in 2010 affects patients, and what the Church says about it. To register, please send name, phone no./email and $5 registration fee to St. John the Evangelist Church, c/o Peace & Social Justice Ministry, 112 E. Second St., Frederick 21701.
