Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish Center

Fr. John Holliday, pastor of St. Joseph Church, Emmitsburg, will be leading a workshop on the changes in the Mass that will take place the first Sunday of Advent 2011. Everyone, especially liturgical ministers, is invited to attend to learn about the Mass and how the changes will affect the prayers and responses of the congregation and the priest. A light breakfast will begin the day and we will end with a pizza lunch at noon.

From Barbara . . .

Again Jesus talks to us about forgiveness. All 4 of today's readings invite us to remember that hate and anger are not productive. We are called to follow the example of Jesus in forgiving those who sin against us. Our psalm reminds us "the Lord is kind and merciful." On this weekend when we remember the tragedy of 9/11, we mustn't hold on to the anger but move beyond it and work towards world peace and understanding. It starts with our neighbors and our families. Take time this week to get to know more about someone you don't know very well who lives near you or with whom you work.

Thanks so much to all the people who worked to make the Labor Day Festival such a success. Once again it was a great time with good food, music and fun. It takes so many people to work the event that we can't thank everyone individually but if you had any hand in helping with the event please know that your time and effort are greatly appreciated.

The next thing on the agenda will be Colorfest. Once again we will need your help in making the Crab Cake and Italian sausage stand a success. If you can help by donating something, please take a plate from the back of the church. If you can give us some of your time, that would be wonderful and please call Will Lyons to volunteer. His number is elsewhere in the bulletin. If you can't do any of the above, please pray for the success of the event.

May God continue to bless us all.
